Grace

Sunday, Feb. 1

“Amazing Grace”

Rev. Molly Housh Gordon

What is grace, for a Unitarian Universalist? Join Rev. Molly to explore theological understandings of grace in the liberal religious tradition. Where do we find unearned gifts in our lives?

Sunday, Feb. 8

“Saying Grace”

Worship Associates

Join us for an exploration of the many cultural and family traditions of “Saying Grace.” How do you give thanks before a meal? How has your understanding of saying grace changed from your family of origin? How do we say grace as UUs?

Sunday, Feb. 15

“All Together Now”

Rev. Molly Housh Gordon

Join us for a lively multi-generational Valentine’s Day Worship. We will reflect on the value of community and the ties of love that bind our congregation, and we will kick off our annual stewardship drive.

Sunday, Feb. 22

“Guilt and Grace”

Rev. Molly Housh Gordon

What does it look like to receive grace from another person? Often forgiveness comes to us as an unearned gift... Can we learn to truly accept it and let go of our own guilt?

“Grace is something you can never get but only be given. There’s no way to earn it or deserve it or bring it about any more than you can deserve the taste of raspberries and cream or earn good looks or bring about your own birth.”

– Frederick Buechner

In some orthodox Christian theological traditions, God’s grace is what saves us – even when we are sinful and unworthy, even when we don’t deserve it. In these traditions, grace is a beautiful concept of the unconditional nature of divine love. But Unitarian Universalists generally reject ideas of original sin, and we believe in the inherent worth of every soul, so we don’t seem to talk much about grace. I think this is a loss. Can we find our way back to grace?

Our liberal religious tradition says yes. In our tradition grace is not a supernatural salvation, but exists as an awareness of the unearned gifts of life all around us. We did nothing to deserve the beauty of the sunset or the taste of raspberries and cream, but here they are. We cannot earn the gift of forgiveness when we misstep, but so often, there it is.

We receive grace in our own theological tradition when our hearts leap in gratitude at the unearned wonder of life itself. We receive grace when we fail or fall but are loved and worthy anyway, no matter what. Perhaps this kind of grace saves us after all.

Gratitude for our lives and assurance of our worth enable us to live fully and love bravely. This is the gift of grace. Let us accept it graciously.

See you in church!

Stewardship 2015

“All Together Now”

Our Goal: Pledges from All Individuals/Households

Your Stewardship Team has an ambitious goal for our stewardship campaign this year – pledges from all individuals/households able to pledge. The team has faith that enough will be pledged to meet our financial needs if we are able to show everyone the importance of pledges in planning our budget for 2015-16.

Realistically, with needs on the horizon to support an expanded religious education program and rebuild working capital, we estimate about 20% or $50,000 more in pledges will be necessary for 2015-16, but we are confident we can reach this level of pledging with expanded participation.

For the current fiscal year, about one-third of our potential pledgers did not pledge. While many of them likely contributed cash in weekly offerings – which is greatly appreciated and helpful – such donations are variable and cannot be relied on in planning our budget.

Therefore, we aim to see a pledge of record from all who are able. Even a pledge of only $1 per day ($365 a year) from those who have not previously pledged would take us much of the way toward our anticipated financial need in 2015-16. Of course, we also hope current pledgers who are able will increase their pledges to meet the rest of the need.

This year we have developed “program budget”

Where does your pledge money go?

- Our average Sunday worship service costs about $1,700.
- We spend about $1,500 per Sunday on religious education – $23.50 per child in the program. This cost will increase next year with a full-time R.E. Director.
- The cost of our ministries is almost $2,000 per week.

Included in these figures are staff and facilities costs of $12,621 and $1,843 a month, respectively.

While we could not function without and are grateful for our many volunteers, obviously volunteerism alone cannot sustain our beloved church.

information that shows how much we spend in three broad categories: Ministries, worship and R.E. Some of that program budget information is reflected in the box at the bottom of this page, and more will be made available during the stewardship campaign.

Our campaign theme is derived from the Beatles’ song “All Together Now,” which was on the “Yellow Submarine” album – the cover of which inspired our campaign logo and colors.

The campaign will officially begin with a stewardship sermon at worship on Feb. 15, and we will begin accepting pledges that day.

Because we are a fun-loving church, the Stewardship Team is sponsoring a free Beatles Karaoke and Sing-Along Party at 7 p.m. Feb. 21, and pledges also will be accepted then. See page 3 for more information.

We anticipate many pledges will be received before and on Stewardship Sunday, March 15. After noon that day, our stewards will fan out across town to personally contact those who have not pledged by noon. All pledges are due by Sunday, March 22.

If you have any questions, please ask one of our Stewardship Team members: Steve Scott, chair; Rev. Molly Housh Gordon; Ene-Kaja Chippendale; Margaret Harder; Jeremy Milarsky; Steve Mudrick; Maria Oropallo; and Jan Swaney.

Questions also may be sent by email to stewardship@uuchurch.net.

February Worship Theme: Grace

Wise Words

“Grace is not a strange, magic substance which is subtly filtered into our souls to act as a spiritual penicillin. Grace is unity, oneness within ourselves, oneness with God.”

– Thomas Merton

“All the natural movements of the soul are controlled by laws analogous to those of physical gravity. Grace is the only exception.”

– Simone Weil

“Grace strikes us when we are in great pain and restlessness. It strikes us when we feel that our separation is deeper than usual, because we have violated another life, a life which we loved, or from which we were estranged.”

– Paul Tillich & Thomas Moore

“The winds of grace are always blowing; it is for us to raise our sails.”

– Ramakrishna

“Grace is something good that comes into our lives unexpectedly and we know that we do not deserve it. When grace comes, even in little things, all life suddenly becomes better... to be in the presence of someone with grace is to become more gracious yourself.”

– John Coburn

“I do not at all understand the mystery of grace – only that it meets us where we are but does not leave us where it found us.”

– Anne Lamott

Kickstart Religious Education Dinner

6 p.m. Friday, Feb. 13

Join us for a spaghetti dinner for the whole family, with childcare provided.

We'll give you the update on our transition process as Lisa Fritsche retires and we move toward hiring a new Religious Education Director.

We'll hear your thoughts and dreams about the future of our Religious Education program.

We'll discuss how to make those dreams a reality through our financial and volunteer support.

You will have the chance to make a “leadership pledge” before we begin our stewardship campaign to express your investment in our R.E. community. This event is co-sponsored by your Religious Education Team and your Stewardship Team. All families affiliated with our wonderful R.E. program are encouraged to attend.

Please sign up at http://uuchurch.net/kickstart\_re\_dinner.htm or by sending an email to kynabyerly@socket.net.

Minister's Monthly Challenge: *Notice Grace

Do you notice the unearned gifts that come into your life? Where are you receiving grace from another person, or from life itself?

And what about giving grace? Look out for opportunities this month to practice unconditional love and random acts of kindness.

This month, notice grace – as you receive and give it!

In faith,
Rev. Molly

Upcoming Workshop Volunteer Coordination and Sharing the Ministry

With Rev. Molly Housh Gordon
9 to 11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 21
Light Breakfast Provided

(Childcare available upon advance request by Feb. 14)

The Committee on Ministry (COM) would like to invite you to its quarterly leadership breakfast and training. The topic of this event will be “Sharing the Ministry” and will focus on creating service opportunities and recruiting volunteers. The training will be led by Rev. Molly on Saturday, February 21, 2015 from 9 to 11a.m. in the Centering Room at church. The event is open to all.

The primary purpose of the Committee on Ministry is to promote the spiritual health and well-being of UUCC. In that role the committee is working to develop leadership, build commitment to shared ministry, and help our congregation work to fulfill the mission of our church.

Board settles on transition plan for 3-year terms

The Board of Trustees has settled on a plan for transition from two-year to three-year board terms in accordance with amended church bylaws approved at the May 18, 2014 annual congregational meeting. The amended bylaws allow the board to facilitate the transition by, among other things, adjusting the terms of current board members.

Under the transition plan, Mary Denson and George Bunyea will have their terms extended by one year from June 30, 2015 to June 30, 2016, and Jeremy Milarsky, Steve Scott and Gregg Suhler will have their terms extended by one year from June 30, 2016 to June 30, 2017. All of them have agreed to have their terms extended.

Three new board members will be elected at the annual congregational meeting in spring 2015 for terms beginning July 1, 2015 and ending June 30, 2018, which will complete the transition to three-year terms in just one year from the time the bylaws were amended.

Strategic Planning

Working on a guide to our future

The Strategic Planning team has assembled the ideas and concepts derived from last fall's cottage meetings, and we are finding some major and minor themes running through the list. We appreciate all the people who came out to tell us what they want UUCC to be like in the near and far future.

Some concrete ideas:

- Two Sunday worship services
- Open a downtown location
- Develop a ministry on campus for students
- Build a community garden on our property
- Reconstruct the deck

- Live-stream our services
Your thoughts?

If you were unable to attend a cottage meeting and you want your voice to be heard, consider participating in new meetings being developed around a common time and place of interested people. We would like these meetings to take place in groups, not one-to-one. We have found that ideas and questions are best reviewed with others who share our goal of designing what UUCC will be like in 5-10-20 years.

If you would like to add your voice, please contact Mary Denson at 573-823-3757 or maryc.denson@gmail.com to participate in a meeting.

UUCC Grounds Team Vision

Imagine our Unitarian Universalist Church set in a woodland garden that feels peaceful, welcoming, and fascinating. Where you feel at home and want to spend time exploring or just sitting and connecting with the vibrant life around you. Where you can take a walk along winding footpaths and discover little nooks and dells where somebody has placed a sculpture or built a stone cairn. Where you can sit in the shade and watch insects going about their busy lives, listen to the birds singing, and have a relaxed talk with friends. Imagine a wild, safe, playground for your children where they can explore and discover and learn to feel at home in nature.

This is what I want to create at UUCC. I want to make the gardens and woodlands attractive and accessible members of all ages so that the grounds become a natural extension of our church and of our worship. So that our worship and celebration is not confined to a building but expanded to include the rich resources of the wilderness that surrounds it. I want to create a beautiful and soulful woodland garden that will be an inspiration to everybody who visits it.

The Grounds Team meets every second Saturday of the month at 9 a.m.

– Peter Holmes, Team Leader

Take a walk to the park – easy access created!

Members of the UUCC Grounds Team recently created easy access for our kids and parents to Shepard Boulevard Park, which is just east of our church's grounds.

A new sign near our church playground will direct you through the rail fence and into the park. The trees along the newly-opened fence have been trimmed to provide a line of sight from the church grounds to the city park and playground.

We encourage our church families to take advantage of this welcoming and well-maintained public playground – it's right next door!

Living the 7th Principle: Creating Our Own Wild and Wonderful Back Yard Gardens

Sunday, Feb. 8 – 11:45 a.m. to 1:15 p.m.

Vegan Chili Lunch and Childcare Provided

An inspirational video on landscaping for wildlife will be shared after church on Sunday, Feb. 8. Doug Tallamy, author of “Bringing Nature Home,” presents the case that we all have the opportunity to protect biodiversity, and that a simple change in the way we look at our yards can make a crucial difference to wildlife. Filled with informative stories and vivid photos, this presentation is empowering for those of us who want to tend our yards in harmony with the natural world.

We’ll follow up with a short discussion to share ideas, experiences, resources, and questions.

YRUU Would Love Your Help!!

YRUU Regional Senior Youth Mini-Con Feb. 27-March 1, 2015 at UUCC

UUCC's YRUU youths are organizing and hosting a conference from Feb. 27 to March 1, 2015 for regional UU teens on the theme of "boundaries and consent."

Their goal is to increase understanding of this important topic and empower teens to become activists in creating a culture that respects consent.

The teens of our church have put in a lot of work, and it has already been a great opportunity for them to develop their leadership skills. But they still need the help of their church community to pull this off.

If you are interested in volunteering, we would love your help. We have many roles from helping in the kitchen to organizing supplies to overnight chaperoning. Please email me at jamilabatchelder@yahoo.com if you are interested in participating. Thank you!

– Jamila Batchelder, YRUU Advisor

Green Sanctuary Team News

Green Sanctuary sponsored a vegetarian cooking class that, at the request of some of the participants, turned out to be a vegan class! Joe Szucs, Rita Turner, Elaine Martin, Kathie Bergmann, Jeanne and Dennis Murphy and Corinne Mann chopped and stirred and baked and cooked! Another class will be held in the spring if there is demand for another one. If interested contact lisa.a.guillory@gmail.com.

The City of Columbia has begun taking plastic types 1 through 7. This is good news, but it begs a different use for the new cedar enclosure on the west side of the building. Please stop dropping plastic off at the church, unless you live out of town. As for that lovely cedar fencing... we need more refuse storage space, and discussion is ongoing about how to use the enclosure.

GS Team reminds everyone that bringing your own plates and silverware to potluck uses less hot water and electricity, helping to reduce the church utility bill. Taking your plates and silverware home and including them with your usual dish washing is more environmentally friendly than doing extra loads of dishes at the church.

GS will be sponsoring a table at Earth Day on Sunday, April 19. A SignUp Genius link will be sent to church members in March. Please sign up to volunteer an hour of your time to talk to festival goers about environmental justice UU style!
