

Service Opportunity: Choir Member

Description: Each Wednesday from late August through May, members of the UU Sanctuary Choir (UU Singers) come together from 7 to 8:30 p.m. to rehearse repertoire for the upcoming worship services. The following Sunday, the choir gathers ahead of the first service (if there are two, usually at 8:15 a.m.) to touch up the rep for the given Sunday. While no prior musical or choral training is required to join, it is necessary to have a strong work ethic, a desire to make music, and a willingness to have fun with new and old friends in a musical setting.

Expected Term of Service Term: No limit.

This opportunity will enable you to: Becoming a choir member would enable you to brush up on musical skills that may have gone dormant, or that you didn't know you had. Whether you're an international opera star, or a world-class shower singer, choral singing develops interpersonal skills, fosters an environment of teamwork, and provides a respite from the rigors of daily work.

Skills needed: Strong work ethic. Desire to make music. Team player.

Training: Training would take place at weekly choir rehearsals.

Number of Positions Open: Multiple.

If interested, contact: Marques J. Ruff, Interim Director of Music Ministry, 573-442-5764 or music@uuchurch.net.