Gathering Hymn #68 - “Come, Ye Thankful People, Come”

*Come, ye thankful people, come;
Raise the song of harvest home.
All is safely gathered in
‘Ere the winter storms begin.
Earth is bounteous to provide
For our wants to be supplied;
Come, in glad thanksgiving, come;
Raise the song of harvest home.*

*These our days are as a field
Sweet abundant fruit to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown.
First the bud and then the ear,*

*Then the full corn shall appear.
Live so that at harvest we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.*

*Field and furrow, heavy grown;
Yours to tend but not your own.
Bread of life shall ye restore
To your neighbors evermore.
Gather all the nations in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin.
Let the world in gladness come;
Share the joy of harvest home.*
